

Peacebuilding in Crisis?

Experience and New Perspectives

International Symposium hosted by the German Foundation for Peace Research and the Centre for Democracy and Peace Research, University of Osnabrueck

January, 23rd – 25th 2014, University of Osnabrueck

Keynote Speakers and Panelists

Prof. Dr. Michael Barnett

George Washington University, Elliott School of International Affairs
Professor of Political Science and International Affairs

Michael Barnett does research on international relations, international organizations, humanitarian action, the United Nations. His regional focus is on the politics of the Middle East.

Recent publications:

- With Janice Stein (eds): Sacred Aid: Faith and Humanitarianism. Oxford: Oxford University Press 2012.
- The Empire of Humanity: A History of Humanitarianism. Ithaca/New York: Cornell University Press 2011.
- With Tom Weiss: Humanitarianism Contested: Where Angels Fear to Tread. Abingdon/New York: Routledge Press 2011.

<http://home.gwu.edu/~barnett/home.htm> and
<http://departments.columbian.gwu.edu/politicalscience/people/121>

Prof. Dr. Susanne Buckley-Zistel

University of Marburg, Center for Conflict Studies

Professor of Peace and Conflict Studies and Executive Director of the Center for Conflict Studies

Susanne Buckley-Zistel's main areas of research are on transitional justice and dealing with the past, peacebuilding, civil wars, development assistance, gender, post-positivist theories. Her regional focus is on Africa.

Recent publications:

- With Christian Braun, Teresa Koloma Beck and Friederike Mieth (eds): Transitional Justice Theories. Abingdon/New York: Routledge 2014.
- With Thorsten Bonacker (eds): Transitions from Violence. Special Issue of the International Journal of Conflict and Violence 7 (2013) 1.
URL: http://www.ijcv.org/issues/ijcv7\(1\)2013.pdf2013.pdf).
- Redressing Sexual Violence in Transitional Justice and the Labelling of Woman as 'Victims'. In: T. Bonacker and C. Safferling (eds): Victims of International Crimes: An Interdisciplinary Discourse. The Hague: T.C.M. Asser Press 2013, 91-100.

http://www.uni-marburg.de/konfliktforschung/personal/buckley-zistel/index_html

Prof. Dr. David C. Chandler

University of Westminster, Centre for the Study of Democracy

Professor of International Relations

David Chandler's research fields are international intervention and regulation, rule of law, human security, empowerment, democratization, state capacity-building, human rights, civil society development, anti-corruption and transparency, country 'ownership', post-conditionality, and 'pro-poor' development.

Recent publications:

- Human-centred development? Rethinking "freedom" and "agency" in discourses of international development. In: Millennium: journal of international studies 42 (2013) 1, 3-23.
- Freedom vs Necessity in International Relations: Human-Centred Approaches to Security and Development. London/New York: Zed Books 2013.
- Resilience: The Governance of Complexity – Critical Issues in Global Politics. Abingdon/New York: Routledge forthcoming May 2014.

<http://www.davidchandler.org/>

<http://www.westminster.ac.uk/about-us/our-people/directory/chandler-david>

Dr. Martina Fischer

Berghof Foundation, Berlin

Political scientist and Director of the Southeast Europe Programme at the Berghof Foundation

Martina Fischer has done research on peacebuilding in post-war societies and the role of civil society in conflict transformation. Furthermore she investigated the interaction of different actors in transitional justice processes and reconciliation with a particular emphasis on the Balkan region.

Recent publications:

- With Ljubinka Petrović-Ziemer (eds): Dealing with the Past and Peacebuilding in the Western Balkans, Berghof Report 18, Berlin: Berghof Foundation, 2013.
- With Beatrix Austin and Hans J. Giessmann (eds): Advancing Conflict Transformation. The Berghof Handbook II, Opladen, Farmington Hills: Barbara Budrich Publishers 2011.
- Martina Fischer (ed.): Ten Years after Dayton. Peacebuilding and Civil Society in Bosnia-Herzegovina. 2nd Edition. Münster, Hamburg, London: Lit-Verlag 2007.

<http://www.berghof-foundation.org/en/profile/15>

Prof. Dr. Roger Mac Ginty

University of Manchester, School of Social Sciences, Humanitarian and Conflict Response Institute (HCRI)

Professor of Peace and Conflict Studies

Roger Mac Ginty's research areas are peace processes, political violence, and local responses to international peace-support interventions. He has conducted field research in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, Georgia, Jordan, Kosovo, Lebanon, Sri Lanka and the US.

Recent publications:

- With Michael Pugh, Marc Howard Riess, Patrick M. Regan, Necla Tschirgi, Christine Bell, Susan L. Woodward, Edward Newman, Thania Paffenholz (eds): Handbook of Peacebuilding. Routledge Handbooks. London/New York: Routledge 2013.
- Hybrid Statebuilding. In: Robert Engell, Peter Halden (eds): New Agendas in Statebuilding. Hybridity, Contingency and History. Abingdon/New York: Routledge 2013.

- With Oliver Richmond: The local turn in peacebuilding: A critical agenda for peace. Third World Quarterly 34, (2013) 5, 763-783.

<http://www.manchester.ac.uk/research/Roger.macginty/personaldetails>

Prof. Dr. Tobias Debiel

University of Duisburg-Essen, Institute for Political Science/Institute for Development and Peace and Käte Hamburger Kolleg/Centre for Global Cooperation Research

Professor for International Relations and Development Policy, director of the Institute for Development and Peace and of the Käte Hamburger Kolleg/Centre for Global Cooperation Research

Tobias Debiel does research on State Failure and Global Governance, UN Peace Operations and Responsibility to Protect, Development Policy in War-torn Societies, Aid Regimes and Practices of the Development Cooperation with a Focus on Governance Issue, Violence Prevention and Peacebuilding.

Recent publications:

- With Andrea Gawrich (eds) in collaboration with Holger Niemann: (Dys-)Functionalities of Corruption: Comparative Perspectives and Methodological Pluralism. In: Zeitschrift für Vergleichende Politikwissenschaft (ZfVP)/Comparative Governance and Politics 7 Supplement 1 (2013), Special Issue 3, 1-11.
- With Wren Chadwick and Frank Gadinger (eds): Relational Sensibility and the 'Turn to the Local'. Prospects for the Future of Peacebuilding. With contributions from Volker Boege, Morgan Brigg, David Chandler, Kai Koddenbrock, and Louise Wiuff Moe. (=Global Dialogues, 2) Duisburg: Käte Hamburger Kolleg/Centre for Global Cooperation Research 2013.
- With Sascha Werthes: Menschliche Sicherheit. Fallstricke eines wirkungsmächtigen Konzepts. In: Christopher Daase/Julian Junk (Hrsg.): Verunsicherte Gesellschaft – überforderter Staat. Zum Wandel der Sicherheitskultur. Frankfurt/New York: Campus 2013, 319-336.

http://inef.uni-due.de/cms/index.php?article_id=98&user=tdebiel

http://www.uni-due.de/politik/debiel_zurperson.php

<http://www.gcr21.org/the-centre/team/directors/prof-dr-tobias-debiel>

Prof. Dr. Vivienne Jabri

King's College London

Professor of International Relations and Coordinator of the Research Centre for International Relations

Vivienne Jabri's research focuses on critical and poststructural theories of politics and international relations, war and political violence in the government of populations, cosmopolitanism and the 'international' as political space, gender and feminist theory, The politics of security, the politics of identity/difference and postcolonial theory, art, aesthetic theory, and politics.

Recent publications

- The Postcolonial Subject: Claiming Politics/Governing Others in Late Modernity. Abingdon/New York: Routledge 2013.
- Cosmopolitan Politics, Security, Political Subjectivity. In: European Journal of International Relations 18 (2012) 4, 625-644.
- War and the Transformation of Global Politics. London/New York: Palgrave Macmillan: 2010

<http://www.kcl.ac.uk/sspp/departments/warstudies/people/professors/jabri.aspx>

Prof. Dr. Keith Krause

The Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies in Geneva, Switzerland.

Professor of International Relations and Political Science, Director of the Centre on Conflict, Development and Peacebuilding (CCDP), Programme Director of the Small Arms Survey

Professor Krause's research interests include concepts of security, the changing character of contemporary armed violence, multilateral security cooperation, arms control and disarmament, peacekeeping, peacebuilding and reconstruction policy.

Recent publications:

- Arms and the State. Patterns und Military Production and Trade (= Cambridge Studies in International Relations, 22).Cambridge University Press 1995.
- With Michael Charles Williams (eds): Critical Security Studies: Concepts and Cases. Minneapolis: University of Minnesota Press 1997.
- Culture and Security. Multilateralism Arms Control and Security Building. London/Portland: Frank Cass 1999.
- Hybrid Violence: Locating the Use of Force in Postconflict Settings. In: Global Governance 18 (2012) 1, 39-56.
- With Oliver Jutersonke: Peace, Security and Development in Post-Conflict Environments. In: Security Dialogue 36 (2005) 4, 447-462.

http://graduateinstitute.ch/directory/_people/krause

Dr. Thania Paffenholz

The Graduate Institute Geneva, Switzerland, Center on conflict, development and peacebuilding

Political scientist and senior researcher, trained mediator and facilitator

Thania Paffenholz's main fields of research are conflict analysis and peacebuilding, the conflict-development nexus and the role of development actors in peacebuilding critical analysis of the role of the aid system in peacebuilding/conflict international peacemaking strategies, and the role of civil society in peacebuilding.

Recent Publications

- Civil Society. In: Mac Ginty, Roger (ed.): Handbook of Peacebuilding. London and New York: Routledge Taylor and Francis 2014, 347-359.
- International Peacebuilding Goes Local: analysing Lederach's conflict transformation theory and its ambivalent encounter with 20 years of practice". Peacebuilding (=Routledge Open Select). Routledge London and New York 2013.
- Civil Society and Peacebuilding: A Critical Assessment (ed.). Boulder: Lynne Rienner Publishers 2010.

<http://graduateinstitute.ch/home/research/centresandprogrammes/ccdp/staff/researchers/paffenholz-thania.html>

Prof. Dr. Andreas Mehler

German Institute for Global Area Studies, Institute of African Affairs, Hamburg

Political scientist and director of the Institute of African Affairs

Andreas Mehler's research focuses on power sharing models after peace treaties, violent conflict, crisis prevention, statebuilding and democratization processes, and German and French Africa policies.

Recent publications:

- Why Federalism Did Not Lead to Secession in Cameroon, in: Ethnopolitics 13 (2013) 1, 48-66.
- Consociationalism for Weaklings, Autocracy for Muscle Men? Determinants of Constitutional Reform in Divided Societies, in: Civil Wars 15 (2013) Special Issue 1, 21-43.
- Review: Mike McGovern 'Making War in Côte d'Ivoire', in: The Journal of Modern African Studies 51 (2013)1, 189-191.

<http://www.giga-hamburg.de/de/team/mehler>

Prof. Dr. Michael Pugh

University of Bradford, School of Social and International Studies

Professor of Peace and Conflict Studies

Biographical note

Michael Pugh is Emeritus Professor, University of Bradford and Visiting Professor, Radboud University Nijmegen. His research areas include critical security studies with an emphasis on the political economy of post-conflict peacebuilding, peacekeeping and humanitarianism, the UN. His regional focus is the Balkans.

His publications include:

- With Boris Divjak: The political economy of Corruption in Bosnia and Herzegovina. In: Ola Listhaug and Sabrina P. Ramet (eds): Bosnia-Herzegovina Since Dayton: Civic and Uncivic Values. Ravenna: Longo Editore 2013, 81-97.
- Local Agency and Political Economies of Peacebuilding. In: Studies in Ethnicity and Nationalism 11 (2011) 2, 308-20.
- With Neil Cooper and Mandy Turner (eds): Whose Peace? Critical Perspectives on the Political Economy of Peacebuilding. Basingstoke: Palgrave 2008 (pbk 2011).

Prof. Dr. Oliver Richmond

University of Manchester, Humanitarian and Conflict Response Institute

Research Professor of International Relations, Peace and Conflict Studies

Oliver Richmond's primary areas of expertise are in peace and conflict theory and its interlinkages with IR theory, local forms of critical agency and resistance in peacebuilding, and their role in constructing hybrid or post-liberal forms of peace and states.

Recent publications:

- Failed Statebuilding and Peace Formation. Yale University Press forthcoming, 2014.
- Peace and International Relations. A new Agenda. Abingdon/New York: Routledge 2008.
- A Post Liberal Peace. Abingdon/New York: Routledge 2011.
- A Pedagogy of Peacebuilding: Infrapolitics, Resistance, and Liberation. In: International Political Sociology 6 (2012) 2, 115-131.

<http://www.manchester.ac.uk/research/Oliver.richmond/personaldetails>

Dr. Jonas Wolff

Peace Research Institute Frankfurt

Political scientist and researcher

Jonas Wolff does research on South American politics, international democracy promotion, and foreign and development policies.

Recent publications:

- With Hans-Joachim Spanger and Hans-Jürgen Puhle (eds): The Comparative International Politics of Democracy Promotion. Abingdon/New York: Routledge 2014.
- With Annika E. Poppe: The Normative Challenge of Interaction: Justice Conflicts in Democracy Promotion. In: Global Constitutionalism 2 (2013) 3, 373-406.

http://hsfk.de/Mitarbeiter-innen.10.0.html?no_cache=0&detail=122&L=1