

Inhaltsverzeichnis

I. Introduction	9
Roland Czada, Thomas Held and Markus Weingardt
II. Religions as Resources for Peacebuilding
A Joint Vision for World Peace? Religions as Driving Forces for a Culture of Peace	19
Hans Küng
Religion, Nationalism, and Conflict: An Update	34
David Little
Peacebuilding in the Field. Religious Approaches, Best Practice and Constraints	46
Jeffrey Haynes
Politics and Religious Diversity	66
Claus Leggewie
III. Religions as Peacemakers? Perspectives from Theology and Religious Studies
Resources for Peacebuilding in the Jewish Political Tradition	75
Ben Mollov
Peace and Violence in Buddhism. Perspectives from Theology and Religious Studies	90
Peter Harvey
Peace and Violence in Islam	107
S. Ayse Kadayifci-Orellana

Managing Violence and Promoting Nonviolence: The Emerging Agenda of Christian Peacebuilding Scott Appleby	124
Peace and Violence in Hinduism: Gandhi – Beacon of Peace Joseph Prabhu	134
IV. The Ambivalent Relationship of Religions towards Peace. Empirical Evidence and Explanatory Approaches
Peacebuilding and Religious Constitutional Laws Gerhard Robbers	145
A Mixed Blessing: Religion, Violence and Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Matthias Basedau, Georg Strüver and Johannes Vüllers	161
War on Earth and Peace from Heaven: Preventing Religions from Instrumentalisation Andreas Hasenclever	184
Religions, Peace and Human Rights Javaid Rehman	196
Reconciliation as Religious Worship Daniel Philpott	205
Index of Authors	215
Name Index	219