

„Conflicts After Humanitarian Military Interventions“

Conference organized by the network Cultures of Interventions (IK)

18.-19.4.2008 in Potsdam, Germany

Friday, 18th April 2008

Arrival and hotel reservation.

from 15.00 hrs. Coffee and Registration – University of Potsdam, Komplex III, Bezirk 1 - August-Bebel-Str. 89 (Griebnitzsee) - School of Economics and Social Sciences

17.00 Opening
-Welcome addresses: Dr. Thomas Held (DSF), n.n. (Univ. Potsdam), Prof. Dr. Daxner (IK)

17.30 Keynote Briefings:
Prof. Dr. Michael Daxner – Approaches of cultures of interventions
Prof. Dr. Erhard Stölting – Sociology of military and CIMIC Prof. Dr. Thomas Alkemeyer – Up-to-date review of Algerian studies from Bourdieu's point of view
Prof. Dr. Thorsten Bonacker – Intersection of culture of intervention and peace- and conflict studies

19.00 Conference Dinner

20.00 Public expert talk: Tom Königs - Michael Daxner: Theory and practical experiences of cultures of interventions in Kosovo and Afghanistan Followed by Q&A and general discussion.

from 21.30 After Intervention Hours

Saturday, 19th April 2008

9.00-9.10 Introduction to the Workshops

9.15-10.45 Three moderated Workshops, Part 1
Workshop 1: Cultures of interventions Workshop 2: Bourdieu and alternative approaches of political ethnology for peace- and conflict research
Workshop 3: Contribution of Intervention practitioner / practical intervention

10.45-11.15 Coffee

11.15-12.45 Three moderated Workshops, Part 2
Workshop 1: Cultures of interventions
Workshop 2: Bourdieu and alternative approaches of political ethnology for peace- and conflict research
Workshop 3: Inputs from Intervention practitioners

13.00-14.30 hrs Lunch

14.30-16.00 Summary of the Day, Closing Remarks, Outlook for further research

Followed by a business meeting on the organisation of a research network und precise future development of research strategy, Coffee & Departure